

Hello from Eunhye! I have meditated about God's love a lot in this month. If we can see His love in reality, how would that be? It would be really awesome! I would try to embrace tight in my arms. But I would never be able to do that because His love is too big to have it. In other words, His love over flows in me everyday. God does not love me because I deserve to be loved. God loves me just the way I am without asking anything from me. This love is unconditional, undeserving and has no limitis. How amazing is that to think about for a moment and just to feel his absolute love towards us. Love is a choice. Just like God chose to love me, we can choose to love other people as well. It does not matter if that person deserves my love or not, I can just give the love to him by choosing it. We love each other because he loved us first. (1John 4:19) Freely receive, freely give!

Last September 10th, fall term of SYME has started. Some of our students are not Christians. I became a journal partner with Cathy who is not Christian and we began to talk a lot. Our relationship has been getting deeper. I am very thankful for this relationship because I can share Jesus with her in a bonded relationship. Cathy has asked many questions to me. 'If I ever saw God in reality', 'how I would know God is a real God', 'If God is alive, why we have sufferings in life' 'as a different religion believer, how we can betray our own god'.

I surely believe that God has led Cathy to SYME for a special reason, especially for salvation which is the most important thing for everyone's life. I love having conversation with her. It is not always easy to keep having this kind of conversation but it is definitely necessary. I want her to ask more questions and really think about her life. I pray for her heart to be opened and accept Jesus as the LORD and savior.

Pray for...

1. For Cathy's salvation and for my wisdom to share the Gospel courageously.
2. I want to love God himself above all.
3. I want to glorify God through my everyday life.

Thank you for your great partnership by investing the ministry in prayer and finances

God bless you

And I am convinced that nothing can ever separate us from God's love. Neither death nor life, neither angels nor demons, neither our fears for today nor our worries about tomorrow-not even the powers of hell can separate us from God's love. No power in the sky above or in the earth below-indeed, nothing in all creation will ever be able to separate us from the love of God that is revealed in Christ Jesus our Lord.
